EUGENE V. KLEIN
PRESIDENT

From his new ocean-front home in La Jolla, Gene Klein looks ahead to smoother sailing for the San Diego Chargers.

"We have a new coach and we have set a new course of building with younger players," said the club president.

"I dedicate myself and every member of our staff to the task of turning the Chargers into a contender in the shortest possible time."

Eugene Victor Klein is a man accustomed to success. A 6-foot-5 Charger in name and style, Klein was a towering success in the business world. Now he is taking dead aim at the football world.

To this end, Klein divested all his interests in National General Corporation, the company he fathered into the 20th largest in California. He built a new office for himself at San Diego Stadium. He hired a respected new coach, Tommy Prothro.

"Building a winning football team doesn't happen overnight," Klein cautioned. "The road is going to be bumpy. But we do have a nucleus of good veterans, several good rookies and four draft choices in the first two rounds next year. We ask the fans to have patience and we will succeed."

Klein bought the Chargers from Barron Hilton for $10 million on Aug. 25, 1966. "It was probably the biggest thrill I've ever had," he said.

Klein dreamed of owning a pro football team ever since he was a boy. Born in New York on Jan. 29, 1921, he played football as an end at New York University. He was a bomber pilot during World War II and came out a captain. He entered the automobile business in Los Angeles after the war and rapidly became a success in business. He has two children and two grandchildren.

Klein's civic and charitable affiliations include:

Board of Directors—Constitutional Rights Foundation, Martin Luther King Jr. General Hospital, Cedars Sinai Medical Center; Vice Chairman Board of Trustees City of Hope, Urban Affairs Committee of Anti-Defamation League, District Attorney Advisory Council, Mental Health Assn., Variety Club, Big Brothers Boosters, American Cancer Society, National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

In 1973 Klein received the Community Service Award from the Big Brothers of San Diego County and an appreciation plaque from the San Diego Chapter Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. He is a life member of the San Diego Hall of Champions.

OTHER CHARGER OWNERS are Barron Hilton, who founded the club and retained a substantial interest after the sale; George Pernicano, one of Hilton's original associates; the estate of James S. Copley, Mrs. George Whitney and Bill Fox of San Diego, John DeLorean of Rancho Santa Fe, John Quirk of La Costa, Jack Foreman, Jack Ostrow and Frank Rothman of Los Angeles and James Jenkins and Dale F. Carney of Detroit.

TOMMY PROTHRO

HEAD COACH

"Someone may get the wrong idea that the new Charger coach started off with a prayer," Prothro said. "Actually, I am a man of faith, not fear, and this team has a little more going for it than a prayer."

James Thompson Prothro, a man of large physique (6-3, 270) and impressive mental prowess (life master in bridge) does have a king-sized task facing him in San Diego in 1974.

After a year's hiatus reflecting on life away from football, Prothro accepted the challenge of Charger owner Gene Klein to pick up and assemble the pieces from San Diego's most disastrous (2-11-1) season of 1973.

"I have no illusions of being a miracle worker," Prothro said. "But I will be disappointed if we don't have steady improvement. I've never gone into a game I didn't think I could win."

Prothro, 54, was one of college football's most distinguished head coaches at Oregon State and UCLA before joining the Los Angeles Rams in 1971. He had 14 winning teams in 16 years with an overall record of 104 wins, 55 losses and five ties, including three Rose Bowl appearances.

In Prothro's first year in pro football, the Rams missed the playoffs by one-half game with a record of 8-5-1. In 1972, the Rams were 6-7-1 and Prothro was released from his contract. He did not coach in 1973.

A Prothro trademark with the Rams was a flamboyant offense with emphasis on the big play. But he was primarily noted in college football for his outstanding defensive teams.

Prothro's head coaching career began in 1955 when Oregon State hired him from Red Sanders' UCLA staff to guide the Beavers out of their football famine. He did just that.

His teams won 63, lost only 37 and tied 2 in his 10 years there. Twice his Beavers captured the Pacific Coast Conference championship (1956 and 1957), and in 1964 OSU was co-titlist of the AAWU. In between, the Beavers were an independent.

In 1965 Prothro returned to UCLA as head coach and restored the Bruins into a collegiate power. Not since 1961 had the Uclans had a winning team, but in 1965 Prothro led them to an 8-2-1 record, including a 14-12 upset triumph over Michigan State in the Rose Bowl.

For that achievement, Prothro was voted "Coach of the Year" by his fellow members of the American Football Coaches' Association. Ensuing years at Westwood were almost as plentiful. UCLA was ranked in the nation's top 10 for four of his six years.

Prothro was born July 20, 1920 into a sportsminded atmosphere. His father, Thompson "Doc" Prothro, was a former major league baseball player and manager with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Charger coach also is a nephew of Gen. Clifton B.

Tommy competed in football, basketball, baseball and track for Central High in Memphis from 1934-36, and later at Riverside Military Academy in Gainsville, Ga.

He attended Duke University from 1938 until 1942, and was a star blocking back for Wallace Wade. He earned the Jacobs Award as the best blocker in the East, and also competed in baseball and lacrosse before graduating.

Prothro entered the coaching profession almost immediately, joining the staff at Western Kentucky where he was line coach in 1942. World War II briefly interrupted his career, and Prothro served as an officer in the U.S. Navy for three years until his discharge in 1946.

For a year he was coach of the "B" squad at Vanderbilt, and then became backfield coach at the school under Red Sanders in 1947. When Sanders moved to UCLA, Prothro came with him as backfield coach, remaining as an assistant until he accepted the head job at Oregon State in 1955.

Prothro is married to the former Shirley Seagle. He has a daughter, Ann (Mrs. Richard) Wilson.

HARLAND SVARE
GENERAL MANAGER AND VICE PRESIDENT

Harland Svare returned to the Charger front office in 1974 as general manager and vice president.

Svare began his Charger career as general manager in 1971, but agreed to become interim head coach with four games remaining that year. After winning two of the four games, he accepted the head coach position in 1972 and remained in that capacity through eight games in 1973. His record was 7-17-2.

Svare was born on Nov. 25, 1930 in Clarkfield, Minn., and grew up in Poulsbo, Wash. He attended Washington State University and was drafted No. 17 by the Los Angeles Rams in 1953. A right linebacker, he was traded to the New York Giants in 1955 and was a key figure in the outstanding Giant defensive teams of that era. New York won the NFL Championship in 1956 and Eastern Division titles in 1958 and 1959.

Svare began his coaching career as defensive assistant with the Giants in 1960. He went to Los Angeles in 1962, and was head coach of the Rams from mid-1962 through 1965. He returned to the Giants as an assistant in 1967-68 and served under Vince Lombardi at Washington in 1968-69.

Harland and Annette Svare have a daughter, Mia, 4.

JERRY WYNN
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Wynn was assistant sports editor, columnist and Rams' writer for the Long Beach Press Telegram, an Air Force officer and graduate of the University of Illinois. In 1967, he was president of the American Football League public relations directors.

Wynn became an accredited member of the Public Relations Society of America in 1971. He is vice president of San Diego Sigma Delta Chi Foundation; secretary of Sportscasters and Sportswriters Assn. of San Diego; board of governors San Diego chapter National Academy Television Arts and Sciences; board of trustees San Diego Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, and member Press Club, Public Relations Club, Advertising Club and San Diego Historical Society. He is public relations advisor to the San Diego Regional Bicentennial Committee.

Jerry and Barbara Wynn have three children.

TOM MINER
VICE PRESIDENT PLAYER RELATIONS

Tom Miner was appointed to the new position of Vice President Player Relations in 1972. Director of Player Personnel since 1967, Miner was promoted to take charge of all areas of scouting and drafting.

From Checotah, Okla., Miner was twice an All-Missouri Valley Conference end and placekicker at Tulsa University. He chose to play professionally with Calgary in Canada and scored 84 points in 1954. He also played at Winnipeg before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1958. He scored 73 points that year with a team record 14 field goals including one of 47 yards against Cleveland.

From 1960 through 1962, Miner served as end coach and chief scout at Tulsa. He entered the sporting goods business in Tulsa in 1963 and began his career with the Chargers as a part-time area scout in the Southwest and Missouri Valley. He joined the San Diego staff full-time in 1966.

Tom and Pat Miner have two daughters.

COACHING STAFF

John David Crow . . . Offensive Coordinator

One of football's best running backs as a collegian and professional, John David Crow joined the Chargers' coaching staff in 1974 as offensive coordinator.

Crow won the Heisman trophy, college football's highest honor, at Texas A&M in 1957. He was drafted No. 1 by the Cardinals and had seven standout seasons in Chicago and St. Louis. He rushed for 1,071 yards in 1960 including a 203-yard game against Pittsburgh. He was traded to San Francisco in 1965 and played four years with the 49ers as a running back and tight end.

John David began his coaching career under Paul (Bear) Bryant at the University of Alabama in 1969. In three years, he helped develop such top players as Johnny Musso and Scott Hunter. He joined the Cleveland Browns in 1972 and spent two years as offensive backfield coach.

Crow was born in Springhill, La., on July 8, 1935. John David and his wife, Carolyn, have one son and two daughters. His son, John David Jr., is a sophomore running back at Alabama. The Crows reside in El Cajon.

Jackie Simpson . . . Defensive Coordinator

Linebacker coach of the Chargers from 1967 through 1971, Simpson was defensive backfield coach of the Houston Oilers in 1972 and St. Louis Cardinals in 1973.

Simpson's pro career covers three leagues — Canadian, American and National — and three fields of service—player, scout and coach. A guard and linebacker at the University of Mississippi, Jackie played with Montreal from 1958 through mid-1961, Denver in 1961, Oakland from 1962-64 and Winnipeg in 1965. He scouted for the American Football League in 1966.

Simpson was born in Corinth, Miss., on Aug. 20, 1937. Jackie and his wife, Angela, have two sons and one daughter. They reside in San Diego.

Earnel Durden ... Offensive Backfield

Durden was an all-America wingback on Oregon State's Rose Bowl team in 1957. He coached at Compton Junior College and Long Beach State before joining Prothro at UCLA in 1969. He followed Prothro to the Los Angeles Rams as backfield coach in 1971-72. He served with the Houston Oilers in 1973.

Durden was born in Los Angeles on Jan. 24, 1937. Earnel and his wife, June, have three sons. They reside in La Mesa.

Bobb McKittrick ... Offensive Line

Bobb McKittrick was the first assistant coach hired by Tommy Prothro for his new Charger staff in 1974.

A guard, McKittrick played for Prothro at Oregon State from 1955-57. After service as a Marine Corps officer, he coached under Prothro at Oregon State from 1961-64, UCLA from 1965-70 and with the Los Angeles Rams from 1971-72. He returned to Oregon State to do graduate study in 1973.

McKittrick was born in Baker, Ore., on Dec. 29, 1935. Bobb and his wife, Teckla, have two sons. They reside in El Cajon.

Howard Mudd ... Offensive Line

An all-pro guard selected to the all-NFL team of the '60s, Mudd played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1964-69 and with the Chicago Bears from 1970-71. He served as line coach at the University of California from 1972-73.

Mudd was born in Midland, Mich., on Feb. 10, 1942. He attended Hillsdale College and was drafted No. 9 by the 49ers in 1964. Howard and his wife, Marie, have one son and one daughter. They reside in Del Mar.

Willie Wood ... Defensive Backfield

After writing to the Packers for a tryout and signing as a free agent, Willie became one of pro football's most outstanding defensive backs. He intercepted 48 passes from his free safety position and was annually a ranking punt returner. A consensus all-pro selection from 1964-67, he played in eight Pro Bowl games.

Wood was born in Washington, D.C. on Dec. 23, 1936. He attended USC and played quarterback. Willie and his wife, Sheila have two sons. They reside in San Diego.

George Dickson ... Linebackers

A veteran of 18 years as a coach, George Dickson arrived in San Diego in 1972 for his seventh NFL affiliation.

After serving in the Army as a paratrooper and middleweight boxing champion, Dickson attended Notre Dame where he played quarterback behind Johnny Lujack and George Ratterman. He became an assistant coach at Notre Dame, and subsequently served on the college staffs at USC, Pacific and Oklahoma and pro staffs at Oakland, Denver, Atlanta, New Orleans, Washington and Houston.

Dickson was born in Boston on Sept. 27, 1924. He resides in San Diego.

Rudy Feldman ... Defensive Line

A guard at UCLA from 1949-54, Feldman was captain of the 1953 UCLA Rose Bowl team. He served in the Army and coached at Fort Hood. He was an assistant coach at Iowa State in 1957 and at Oklahoma under Bud Wilkinson from 1958-62, and at Colorado from 1963-67. He was head coach at New Mexico from 1968-73.

Feldman was born in San Francisco on May 18, 1932. Rudy and his wife, Joanne, have two boys and one girl. They reside in San Diego.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Aubrey (Red) Phillips ... Talent Scout

Aubrey Clyde (Red) Phillips Jr. joined the Chargers as a full-time scout in 1967.

Phillips was a center and linebacker at Texas Tech, played pro football at Saskatchewan and Regina of the Canadian League and coached for 15 years in high school and as an assistant in college at Texas Tech, South West Louisiana and Northwestern Louisiana.

Bob Moorman ... Talent Scout

A retired Army Major, Clinton Robert (Bob) Moorman joined the Chargers as a full-time scout in 1969.

Moorman was an end at Hampton Institute and played in the Rice Bowl in Japan. He had combat in World War II and the Korean War as an infantryman and paratrooper. He coached the Ft. Dix Army team and at Wiley College.

Ray Newman ... Talent Scout

Newman attended Idaho State College, where he played defensive end. He earned a Masters Degree from Fresno State. He coached in high school and at Bakersfield Junior College for 15 years. His teams were champions consistently.

MEDICAL STAFF

Dr. E. Paul Woodward . . . Team Physician

Dr. E. Paul Woodward is the highly-regarded team physician of the Chargers.

A native Texan and San Diego resident since 1953, Dr. Woodward has treated the Chargers for 9 years. He is a member of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons. He is a graduate of the University of Texas and Tulane Medical School.

Paul and Jean Woodward have five children.

Dr. Jay (Buzz) Malkoff . . . Team Physician

Dr. Jay (Buzz) Malkoff has been treating the Chargers since 1967.

Son-in-law of former Charger coach Sid Gillman, Dr. Malkoff is a graduate of Ohio State University and Ohio State Medical School. He is a member of the American Academy of Family Practice.

TRAINING STAFF

Ric McDonald ... Trainer

Ric McDonald joined the Chargers as trainer in 1972.

McDonald attended the University of Utah, received a Certificate in Physical Therapy from the University of California and earned a Masters Degree in Physical Education from USIU. He was trainer of all teams and faculty member at USIU from 1969 through 1971.

Jim Hammond ... Assistant Trainer

Hammond was a student trainer at Sweetwater High School, Southwestern Junior College, University of Hawaii and San Diego State before joining the Charger staff in 1969. He is continuing his education at San Diego State.

Clyde Evans ... Conditioning Coach

Clyde Evans joined the Chargers in 1974 as the team's first full-time conditioning coach.

Evans assisted San Diego State University coaches Don Coryell and Claude Gilbert with their team conditioning in 1972-73. He was a defensive back at Cabrillo Junior College and played two years of semipro football. He served with the Army in Viet Nam.

COACHING AIDES

Gene Leff . . . Director of Photography

Gene Leff joined the Charger staff in a full-time capacity in 1970, but has been associated with Charger filming since 1962.

A professional ice skater for 14 years as member of the Flip And Flop comedy team, Leff turned to photography and worked for the San Diego Gulls, Rockets, and NFL Films in addition to the Chargers. He has filmed and edited several Charger hi-lite films.

Sid Brooks . . . Equipment Manager

Brooks retired as a Senior Master Sergeant at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, where he supervised the Cadet Athletic Supply Branch. He earned 12 Air Force awards for outstanding service including "Outstanding Airman of Year" in 1972.

Bronco Hinek . . . Asst. Equipment Manager

Bronco Hinek was promoted to assistant equipment manager in 1973 after four years as chief clubhouse attendant.

Son of a former equipment manager of the Oakland Raiders Frank Hinek, Bronco knows his way around a clubhouse and also is a good player. He works out with the players after practice.

Hinek, 23, is single and will continue to study for a physical education degree at San Diego State in the off-season.

ADMINISTRATION

Bob Hood . . . Executive Assistant

Bob Hood was promoted in 1973 to the new position of Executive Assistant.

Hood began his Charger career as water boy in 1962, and since has handled almost every non-playing position. Among them are photographer, film manager, assistant equipment manager, purchasing agent, training camp coordinator and ticket promotions.

Hood is a graduate of San Diego State and is studying for a degree at Western State College of Law.

Phil Barile . . . Ticket Manager

Before settling down to the football position in 1960, Barile touched most bases of Los Angeles sports. He was ticket manager of the Pan-Pacific Auditorium for four years and worked for the Dodgers, Rams and Santa Anita and Hollywood Park.

Phil's lovely wife is Louise.

Frances Beede . . . Controller

Frances joined the club when it moved to San Diego in 1961. She is beginning her 13th year on the staff. She cares for the books and cares about the people with the Chargers.

Frances has three children.

Walter Hoye . . . Asst. Director of Public Relations

Hoye served four years with the Michigan Chronicle as sports editor and columnist and covered the Detroit Lions. He attended Wayne State University. He is an executive board member of the San Diego Urban League; Neighborhood House Association board of directors; United Way of San Diego County, Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation and San Diego County Red Cross Chapter public relations committee; San Diego Chamber of Commerce assistant vice president of sports and National Black Alliance board member.

Walter and Vida have two children.

Gary McCauley . . . Administrative Assistant

Gary McCauley was appointed administrative assistant and training camp coordinator of the Chargers in 1974.

McCauley joined the Chargers in 1972 as assistant director of photography. He also has worked with the business, scouting and equipment departments. He is an Air Force veteran and graduate of San Diego State.

Running Back Bo Matthews, No. 1 Draft Choice from Colorado, is welcomed to San Diego Stadium by Coach Tommy Prothro.

QUARTERBACKS—There is a real generation gap between Johnny Unitas, at 41, and his youthful challengers, second-year pro Don Fouts and rookie Jesse Freitas. Embarking on his 19th NFL campaign, Unitas was handicapped in 1973 by infirmities. He did give San Diego fans an unforgettable moment by completing his 40,000-yard pass. Fouts comes off an impressive rookie season, which did not begin until the fourth game because of a collarbone injury. He has poise and a strong arm. He needs polish. Freitas is the golden boy from San Diego State, who led the NCAA in passing and total offense. He has a large local fan club.

RUNNING BACKS—San Diego has visions of a Big Bull Backfield pairing seven-year veteran Cid Edwards with rookie Bo Matthews. Both are 230-pounders, who can explode as runners and blockers. Edwards led Charger runners with 609 yards last year. Robert (The Tank) Holmes is another power back, who scored seven touchdowns last year. Clint Jones and Bobby Thomas, who came to San Diego with good credentials in 1973, have yet to be heard from. Reece Morrison joins the Chargers this year from Cincinnati.

WIDE RECEIVERS—Once San Diego's most resplendent position, wide receivers is a thin area in 1974. After being sidelined for most of 1973 because of a shoulder separation, Gary Garrison returns to reclaim his perch among pro football's elite receivers. He had caught 40 or more passes in each of his first seven seasons prior to 1973. Slick Jerry LeVias (5-9, 177) led Charger receivers last year with 30 catches. His running mate much of the year was equally small Ron Holliday, a free agent. At 6-3, 210, No. 4 draftee Harrison Davis from Virginia figures largely. Other candidates are veteran Jim Beirne and rookie free agent Darold Nogle from San Diego State.

TIGHT ENDS—Elder statesman Pettis Norman girds for his 13th season as the incumbent starter at a position which figures to be hotly contested. James Thaxton and Gary Parris showed raw rookie promise last year. At 6-2, 240, Thaxton has the size with the speed to go deep. Dave Grannell, a No. 11 draftee from Arizona State, was impressive in rookie camp.

OFFENSIVE LINE—Most solid department with four returning starters and good depth, the offensive line could be a Charger strength in 1974. The one hole is right guard, where Walt Sweeney played for 11 years before being traded to Washington in 1974. Russ Washington (6-7, 289) and Terry Owens (6-6, 268) are a pair of outstanding tackles. Washington gained UPI second team all-AFC honors and was the Chargers' "Most Valuable Player." At left guard, Doug Wilkerson (6-3, 256) has all-star potential. Center Carl Mauck (6-4, 243) will get competition from Jay Douglas (6-6, 254). Candidates at right guard are Ira Gordon, Ralph Wenzel, Al Dennis and No. 2 draftee Mark Markovich from Penn State.

KICKERS—Dennis Partee ably managed both punting and place-kicking for the Chargers until turning over the place-kicking to Ray Wersching in 1973. Partee is available for double duty again. Wersching connected on 9 of 10 field goals from within 30 yards, but was not effective from farther out. Gunter Enz from Austria will join other hopefuls at training camp in a continued search for a long-distance kicker.

DEFENSIVE LINE—Strengthening the defensive line will have high priority in 1974. Coy Bacon (6-4, 270) has a lock on one position with Pete Lazetich (6-3, 245) the other frontrunner. Cal Snowden (6-4, 253) and Tim Rossovich (6-4, 240), moved from linebacker, are other candidates. Dave Costa (6-1, 250) will begin his 12th season at one tackle. Rookie John Teerlinck (6-4, 250) will vie for the other position with newcomer Dennis Wirgowski (6-5, 245) and rookie Bon Boatwright (6-5, 262).

LINEBACKERS—A problem position in 1973, all linebacking positions are wide open to numerous candidates. Carl Gersbach in the middle and Floyd Rice and Mel Rogers at the wings ended 1973 as a developing unit. Don Goode, No. 1 draft choice from Kansas, comes with a "can't miss" reputation as a hitter. Mike Stratton has 12 years experience. Sidelined in 1973, Ray White is a good prospect. Rookie Charles Anthony was a starter at USC for three years.

DEFENSIVE BACKS—With experience and depth, the defensive backfield could be the strong link of defense in 1974. Bob Howard and Len Dunlap are incumbent cornerbacks with Reggie Berry a strong challenger. Nine-year veteran Joe Beauchamp and Chris Fletcher are the safeties. Safety Ron Smith and corner Willie McGee were a dangerous kick and punt return duo in 1973. Rookie aspirants include Danny Colbert and Sam Williams.

CHARGERS HISTORY

Aug. 14: First organizational meeting of the proposed American Football League is held in Chicago with six teams, including a Los Angeles entry represented by Barron Hilton. Plans are made for start of league play in 1960 season.

Oct. 14: Frank Leahy, former Notre Dame coach, signs contract to become general manager of Chargers.

Jan. 7: Sid Gillman signs three-year contract to coach the Chargers.

April 9: A total of 207 candidates report to special Charger tryout camp at Burbank.

June 9: Chargers and other members of the AFL sign a five-year contract with the American Broadcasting Company for network telecasting of games.

Aug. 6: Paul Lowe returns opening kickoff of first pre-season game 105 yards for touchdown as Chargers defeat the New York Titans, 27-7, before 27,778 at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Sept. 10: Chargers rally for two touchdowns in last quarter to defeat the Dallas Texans, 21-20, in first league game before 17,724 at Coliseum.

Dec. 10: Chargers outscore Denver, 41-33, to earn first Western Division championship of the AFL. Only 9,928 fans watch game at Coliseum.

Dec. 18: The Chargers, playing their last home game under Los Angeles banner, turn back New York, 50-43, and wind up first season with 10 victories and 4 defeats.

Jan. 1: Chargers lose first AFL championship game to Houston Oilers, 24-16, before 32,183 in Houston.

Feb. 10: AFL gives formal approval for Barron Hilton to shift Los Angeles franchise to San Diego.

Aug. 6: Playing in a setting more reminiscent of ancient Roman ruins than a football stadium, the Chargers defeat Houston, 27-14, before 12,304 sun-baked fans in first AFL pre-season game in Balboa Stadium. Scaffolds, lumber, scattered concrete and open trenches from the enlargement and overhauling operation littered the area. Temperature reached 95 degrees.

Nov. 19: A crowd of 33,788, largest of the first campaign in San Diego, watch as the Chargers defeat Dallas, 24-14, for their 11th victory of the season and 15th consecutive triumph. It clinches their second Western Division championship with five weeks remaining on the schedule. Safetyman Charlie McNeil made the Chargers' 43rd pass interception to establish an all-time pro football record that increased to 49 by season's end.

Dec. 24: Chargers drop their second AFL Championship playoff to Houston, 10-3, in a defensive battle before 29,556 in Balboa Stadium.

Jan. 7: Coached by Sid Gillman and featuring 11 Chargers, the West defeats the East, 42-27, in the first AFL All-Star game before 20,973 in Balboa Stadium. Charger ends Dave Kocourek and Don Norton each catch touchdown passes.

Sept. 26: Charger quarterback Jack Kemp, suffering from an injured hand, is placed on waiver list and claimed for $100 by Buffalo.

Dec. 16: Chargers drop 26-17 decision at Dallas to wind up with their worst season — 4 victories, 10 defeats. During the season 23 players missed two or more games because of injuries.

Jan. 13: The West defeats the East, 21-14, in second AFL All-Star game in Balboa Stadium. End Earl Faison of the Chargers is named the outstanding defensive player.

Jan. 14: Quarterback Tobin Rote, a National Football League and Canadian Football League great, quits Toronto and signs contract with Chargers.

April 30: Barron Hilton and his father, Conrad, sell one-third interest in Chargers to San Diego businessmen John Mabee, George Pernicano, Kenneth Swanson and James Copley and M. L. Bengston of Los Angeles.

Dec. 22: Eight Chargers score as team rolls to a 58-20 victory over Denver in the finale of the 1963 regular season. Point spree stands as San Diego record and helped team wind up with 11-3 mark.

Jan. 5: Chargers win their first AFL title with a rousing 51-10 conquest of Boston before 30,127 in Balboa Stadium. Fullback Keith Lincoln gains 206 yards in 13 carries, scores two touchdowns and accounts for 349 yards total offense.

Jan. 19: Keith Lincoln named the outstanding offensive player as West defeats the East, 27-14, in the annual AFL All-Star game. A crowd of 20,016 watched in Balboa Stadium.

Dec. 6: Chargers defeat New York, 38-3, for eighth victory of the season and their fourth Western Division championship.

Dec. 26: With Lance Alworth out because of injury and Keith Lincoln sidelined early in the first quarter with a fractured rib, the Chargers drop a 20-7 verdict and the AFL championship to Buffalo before 40,242 in War Memorial Stadium.

Jan. 16: Fullback Keith Lincoln of Chargers helps the West continue its All-Star game supremacy over the East with a 28-14 victory in Houston. The game was switched from New Orleans to Houston on one-day's notice. Lincoln was named the outstanding offensive player in a game that also featured Charger quarterback John Hadl, who threw three TD passes.

Nov. 2: Construction of the $27 million San Diego Stadium authorized by a 73 per cent "yes" vote by San Diego citizens.

Dec. 19: Chargers defeat Oakland, 24-14, to wind up season with a 9-2-3 record and their fifth Western Division crown. Lance Alworth gained 160 yards to push his season total to 1,602 yards.

Dec. 23: Paul Lowe, who set league rushing record of 1,121 yards, and Lance Alworth finish one-two in "Player of the Year" voting by AFL players.

Dec. 26: For the second year in row, Buffalo defeats Chargers in the AFL Championship game. This Balboa Stadium encounter wound up, 23-0.

Jan. 15: Linebacker Frank Buncom survived an early-game injury to earn most valuable defensive player honors as the All-Stars defeated league champion Buffalo, 30-19, before 35,572 in Houston. Lance Alworth scored two touchdowns on passes from Jets' Joe Namath and Paul Lowe scored on a one-yard rush.

June 8: The American Football League and the National Football League announce a plan which would see the two leagues merge for the 1970 season. Chargers announce three-year, pre-season game contract with the Los Angeles Rams in the new San Diego Stadium.

Aug. 25: A group of 21 business executives, headed by Eugene Klein and Samuel Schulman of Beverly Hills, purchase the Chargers for $10 million. Klein and Schulman become general partners with Klein replacing Hilton as club president and Schulman taking over as chairman of the board. Barron Hilton and Conrad Hilton retain a substantial interest in the team. James Copley, San Diego newspaper publisher, and George Pernicano, restaurant owner, retain a limited interest.

Nov. 10: Sid Gillman receives a new five-year contract as coach and general manager.

Dec. 18: Eight catches for 156 yards against Kansas City pushes Alworth to a season and all-time Charger high of 73 catches (1,383 yards).

Dec. 24: Ground-breaking ceremonies in Mission Valley signal start of work on the 50,000-seat, $28 million San Diego Stadium, future home of the Chargers.

Aug. 20: San Diego Stadium dedicated as 45,988 fans watch Chargers, playing first National Football League opponent, lose 38-17 pre-season game to the Detroit Lions.

'CHARGE!' FIGHT SONG

(Music by Glenn Grossman, lyrics by Adrian Brown.)

You hear a rolling of thunder in the sky
And that's the rolling thunder of our cry
Roll up the score, let's hear the roar . . . CHARGE!

We'll fight the team we face across the field
The Chargers team will never, never yield
Roll up the score, let's hear the roar . . . CHARGE!

Come on 'n charge you Chargers go, go, go
It's no wonder when we roar like thunder
You go San Diego go, go, go
(Repeat First Stanza)

MEDIA INFORMATION

Press Box Credentials: San Diego Stadium press box space is reserved for members of the working news media. Requests for credentials should be made in advance and directed to Jerry Wynn, Public Relations Director, San Diego Chargers, P.O. Box 20666, San Diego 92120.

Television and Radio: Network television and visiting radio are assigned to marked booths in the press box. Spotters are available upon request.

Locker Rooms: Clubhouse passes are used to gain admittance into the locker rooms after the game. The locker rooms are off limits before the game.

SportsComm: Requests for service should be directed to SportsComm, 2101 Route 70 East, Cherry Hill, N.J. 08003, (609) 442-4111.

Western Union: Requests for circuits and service should be directed to the San Diego office, 340 Plaza, San Diego 92101. (714) 232-2151.

Telephones: There are two pay telephones in the press box work room. Requests for special circuits should be directed to Pacific Telephone Co., 525 B St., San Diego 92101. (714) 232-4111.

Press Box Services: Complete statistical information is supplied before, during and after the game. Scores of other games are announced as received. Refreshments are served before the game and at half-time in the press lounge.

Transportation: Rides to San Diego International Airport will be arranged for newsmen with tight departure schedules.

IMPORTANT: Press gate H is open until one hour after the game. Thereafter you must use the blue door to the left of Gate F to exit from the stadium.

1974 RULES CHANGES

SUDDEN DEATH: For all games, but duration limited to 15-minute overtime in pre-season and regular season games.

THE KICKING GAME: 1. Move goal posts to end line. 2. Kickoff from 35-yard line. 3. Missed field goals returned to line of scrimmage or 20-yard line whichever is farther from goal line. 4. Members of a team kicking from scrimmage (punt or field goal) cannot cross line of scrimmage until ball is kicked with exception of one wide receiver.

THE PASSING GAME: Afford wide receivers better opportunity to get downfield by: 1. Eliminating roll blocking and cutting of wide receivers. 2. Restricting extent of downfield contact defender permitted to have with eligible receivers.

PENALTY CHANGE: Penalty for offensive holding, illegal use of hands and tripping reduced to 10 yards from 15 yards, when infraction occurs in area of line of scrimmage and three yards beyond.

CHARGERS ON KSDO RADIO

San Diego Charger games are broadcast by radio station KSDO (1130), the CBS outlet in San Diego. Andy Musser is the new play-by-play broadcaster. Musser joined KSDO as sports director in 1974 from the CBS radio sports desk in New York.

Stations on the Charger-KSDO network are KOWN, Escondido; KROP, Brawley; KSOM, Ontario; KXTC, Phoenix; KOPO, Tucson, and KVSL, Sho Low, Ariz.

CHARGERS ON KCST-39, KOGO-10

San Diego Charger pre-season games will be televised by KCST-39. Sports director Mike Smith is the announcer.

NBC Sports will televise Charger season road games to San Diego on KGTV-10.

PFWA PRIZE TO MITCHELL
